BOWL-ERO LANES
BUILDS POSITIVE
EMPLOYEE RELATIONS

Bowling is an ideal group and corporate activity to bring together managers, staff and front-line employees in a casual social setting. Shared recreation time creates excitement, encourages teamwork and increases positive communication that carries over into the workplace. Bowling gives co-workers an opportunity to socialize with management, fellow employees and friends outside the workplace. Additional potential benefits are: Improved morale, stronger company loyalty, increased productivity, better communication, decreased absenteeism.

Bowl-ero Lanes is under new ownership. We offer several company party options designed specifically to meet your group's needs. Please contact our General Manager, Michelle Sidener, to discuss the many ways we can help you plan a rewarding and memorable group activity this Holiday Season or anytime of year.
